LONDON PREPARED FOR CORONATION

Gorgeous Decorations Mark the Approach of Notable Festivities.

MANY BRILLIANT FUNCTIONS

Royalty From Many Nations Arrive to Participate in Festivities—King George at Windsor—Crowds on Hand.

London, June 16.—London presents an ever changing pageant to the sight-seeing populace. The bright coloring of the street decorations is now heightened by vivid patches of eastern tints in the garb of the coronation visitors, who are arriving in quick succession.

Sultans, Rajahs and Chinese and Abyssinian delegates with their ladies in picturesque glittering national costumes, everywhere are to be seen.

Today there was a wedding of a Russian competitor at the horse show, which was celebrated in Russian style, the bridal party driving through the streets in a drosky with a typical Russian coachman padded to enormous size.

King George and Queen Mary will return to London from Windsor tomorrow and will remain here until July 1st. The intervening period will be filled with a strenuous round of engagements. Premier Asquith and Mrs. Asquith will give a dinner to their majesties in Downing street. The entertainment will include the presentation of two plays, George Bernard Shaw's "The Man of Destiny," and James M. Barrie's "The Twelve Pound Look."

The Asquith residence is too small to accommodate a large party and therefore Sir Edward Grey, the foreign minister, will give a dinner in honor of the King and Queen at the foreign office, June 23rd, which will be one of the most brilliant functions of the season. There probably will be 150 guests at the dinner, including all the foreign princes and envoys to the coronation.

The foreign office has the finest range of apartments in London and the preparations for the dinner indicate an entertainment of regal magnificence.

Tonight's social event was a coronation fancy costume ball at the botanic gardens arranged by Lord Lansdale, in aid of charity. Thousands of persons attended, but the brilliancy of the affair was spoiled by the heavy rain.

The illuminations in London on coronation night and the Friday night following will be on such a stupendous scale that the electric lighting companies have given notice that they will be unable to supply any more current than already has been arranged for.

MET DEATH IN LONG FALL.

New York Financial District Witnessed Gruesome Incident.

New York, June 16.—The financial district witnessed a gruesome incident at its busiest hour this afternoon when William Anderson, stone-cutter, fell from the 28th floor of the Bankers' Trust Company building, nearing completion at Wall and Broad streets. In setting a stone Anderson slipped and fell. His one wild cry as he realized his doom, attracted the attention of bankers and brokers in the body came hurtling down through space. On a stone coping at the fourth floor the body struck and its impact at that point was so tremendous that an arm was torn off and left lying on the sill as the body bounded out and crashed on the heavy wire netting at the first floor which had been spread over Wall street to protect traffic while the building was being erected.

The screen acted like a springboard and threw the body into the air again. It dropped like a stone, hitting the netting in front of the Wall street entrance of the stock exchange. Excitement in the street was so intense and the crush so dense that the police reserves had to be called out from the nearest station to restore order.

KING EDWARD CONSENTS.

Memorial to His Majesty in Pittsburgh—Features.

London, June 16.—Charles E. E. Childers, British vice consul at Pittsburgh, who is here on a visit, has received a letter from Lewis Mallet, assistant under Secretary of State for foreign affairs, in connection with the Pittsburgh Memorial to King Edward, for which several thousand dollars had been raised, saying:

"Secretary Sir Edward Grey had laid before the king your letter of the 23rd ultimo requesting that his majesty's sanction may be granted to a memorial of his majesty, the late King Edward, in the form of an endowment to the Pittsburgh Tuberculosis Hospital to be named 'The King Edward VII. Memorial Laboratory of Pittsburgh Tuberculosis Sanatorium.'"

Sir Edward has received the King's command to state that the proposed title of the memorial meets with his majesty's entire concurrence, and to intimate his appreciation of the project."

COOKE DENIES EMBEZZLEMENT

Counsel for State and Defense Forego Arguments—Instructions to the Jury Today—Says Warriner Was Not Short.

Cincinnati, June 16.—The end of the trial of Edgar S. Cooke, charged with embezzling $24,000 from the Cleveland, Cincinnati, Chicago & St. Louis Railroad, came today when counsel for the State and the defense announced that they would forego arguments to the jury. The court upon adjournment announced that instructions would be given to the jury tomorrow.

Cooke denied emphatically that he had ever stolen a dollar from the Big Four railroad or committed any dishonest act in his life.

Cooke denied also that he was aware that Charles L. Warriner was short $643,000, that the accounts of Frank Comstock, Warriner's predecessor as Cincinnati treasurer of the road, were not what they should have been or that there was anything irregular in the conduct of the corporation. He started his hearers by declaring: "I know that Warriner was not short, and I can prove it if I get the chance."

Cooke denied that he had ever given Mrs. Ford $22,000 in small bills and accounted for his prosperity while he resided with her in New York by stating that he had inherited $20,000 from his mother. An insinuation on cross examination that he had transferred certain funds to his wife, was met by the further declaration that Mrs. Cooke had inherited about $20,000 from her father's estate. Cooke declared that references in his letter to Mrs. Jeanette Stewart Ford to money matters were written with a view to misleading Mrs. Ford and to keep her from making demands on him. He said he was really not without funds as he wrote, but he only told Mrs. Ford so to make her believe that he was poor and took small sums from her with the same purpose in mind.

"Did you get any money from Warriner?" he was asked. "Yes, to pay Mrs. Ford's bills." "How much; a thousand dollars?" "Oh, that would not be anything." Cooke said he had no idea how much money Warriner had given to him for Mrs. Ford's expenses.

BIDS FOR PANAMA BONDS.

Two Thousand Will be Opened by MacVeagh Tuesday.

Washington, June 16.—More than 2,000 bids for the government's $50,000,000 of Panama canal bonds will be opened by Secretary MacVeagh at 4 o'clock tomorrow afternoon. Financiers are greatly interested in what price the issue will bring. These are the first government bonds not available for National Bank circulation.

The bonds have been selling on the New York curb as high as 103. Government officials think the average price bid will range from 101 to 103. Although three or four large syndicates have put in bids for almost the entire issue, the Treasury has not changed its plan of giving preference to the smaller investors.

A large force of clerks will work tomorrow night and Sunday tabulating the bids and the results may not be known before Monday. There seems to be little doubt that the issue will be largely oversubscribed. The securities will be delivered to the successful bidders about July 1st.

RETAIL FURNITURE MEN.

Sessions Close at Asheville—Editor Dies Suddenly at Hospital.

Asheville, N. C., June 16.—The session of the State Retail Furniture Dealers' Association closed at noon today.

Mr. George C. Royal, of Goldsboro, was elected president, and J. T. Porter, secretary and treasurer. The next meeting will be held in Goldsboro.

Mr. Wilbur Jones, of High Point, editor of the Southern Furniture Journal, attending the session of the Association, died suddenly at Mission Hospital about noon today.

The cause of his death was supposed to be heart failure, as he was heard to complain of a pain in the heart. He went for a ride over the Blount estate yesterday afternoon and complained of feeling sick. While out walking this morning he collapsed and died a few minutes later at the hospital. He was on the programme to speak this morning.

The remains will be shipped to High Point Saturday for interment.

MONARCHIST REVOLUTION.

Reported to Have Broken Out in Portugal.

Madrid, June 15.—Telegrams received today from Vigo state that a monarchist revolution has broken out at Chaves, Portugal, and that the Portuguese garrison mutinied and killed its commander.

The monarchists stormed and raided the offices of the Republican newspapers in the Plaza Braga.

Vigo, Spain, June 15.—Reports from Chaves of the mutiny of two regiments of Portuguese troops are not confirmed. Rumors are probably unfounded since it is learned from other sources that Royalist plans on the Portuguese frontier did not develop as had been expected.

It is supposed here that the Royalists at Chaves planned to mutiny upon approach of Capt. Coucouer, the monarchist leader, who is said to be at the head of the forces near Braga.

FORCING THROUGH RECIPROCITY BILL

Early and Favorable Action on Measure Predicted by Senate Leaders.

GOES INTO SECOND READING

No One Spoke at Length in Senate Yesterday—Senator Roots' Amendment Offered—Penrose Replies to Questions.

Washington, June 16.—The determination of the Senate Finance Committee to push through the Canadian reciprocity bill with all possible speed and the confidence of the Senate leaders was made plain today when Chairman Penrose, of the committee, forced the bill into its second reading before the Senate and announced its probable early passage.

Consideration of the measure today was brief, as no one was prepared to speak at length upon it. Senator Root's pulp wood amendment was offered, but no attempt was made to vote on it. Before the Senate assembled, Senator Penrose had given out a formal statement claiming 60 votes in favor of the passage of the bill, and more than that many votes against the Root amendment which affects the importation of pulp wood and paper.

Chairman Penrose said, replying to questions that he believed the speech would be ready before next week. He had found, he said, that few friends of the bill cared to speak on it, but preferred to vote as quickly as possible. The opponents of the measure, he said, wanted more time to prepare their arguments.

"Do I understand that no one wants to speak in behalf of this bill?" asked Senator Smith, of Michigan.

"Not as many as want to speak against it," replied Mr. Penrose; "the friends of the measure are ready to vote this afternoon. The bill has been before the country for six months and both sides have been discussed at length."

"It seems strange," said Senator Smith, "that a measure to bring into competition with our people an empire larger than our own does not have any apologist or champion in the committee that has been discussing it for weeks."

Senator Penrose said that for his own part he was ready to vote today. Other members suggested that the President and many other leading Republicans and Democrats had explained and endorsed the bill. Senator Smith then said he was not surprised that a measure so devoid of merit should find no Republican willing to stand up and risk his reputation as its champion.

"I thought when the bill came here," said Senator Smith, "we would be greeted by a great burst of wisdom that would flood the country with light and that would cement the people of the country together in support of this agreement. Instead, all lights are out. The country is in darkness so far as anything has been revealed in favor of this measure."

"Don't you consider the President's speech at Chicago as enlightenment on this bill?" asked Senator Kern, of Indiana.

The intelligent has been able to make intelligible many public questions," replied Senator Smith, "but it is amazing that of all the things he has discussed and of all the suggestions he has made, this reciprocity agreement is the only one that has found favor on the Democratic side of the chamber, and that finds no championship on this side."

Chairman Penrose volunteered no statement as to the Senators who would speak for the bill, if any. The Senate adjourned until Monday at the conclusion of the second reading. From that time forward speeches are expected every day upon the bill until it is finally disposed of. Senator Townsend, of Michigan, announced that he would offer an amendment instructing the President to undertake further negotiations looking to a wider reciprocity arrangement with Canada.

GIRLS HELD FOR SHOOTING.

Millionaire Horseman Will Press Charges Against Them.

New York, June 16.—For the fourth time since the shooting of W. E. D. Stokes, the millionaire horseman, on June 7th, Lillian Graham and Ethel Conrad, the show girl and the young illustrator charged with the shooting, were arraigned today before Magistrate Freschi and their bail again refused. It was originally set at $25,000, but in subsequent arraignments it was cut to $15,000 and today to $10,000. Mr. Stokes is still under the care of physicians at his country home in Long Branch, N. J. His counsel emphatically denied today that his client had in any wise altered his determination to press the charges against the girls.

TAFT EVENT WILL BE NOTABLE

Descendants of Presidents of United States Since 1861 Invited to Silver Wedding Celebration. The Features.

Washington, June 16.—Descendants of every President of the United States since 1861 have been invited to the silver wedding celebration which the President and Mrs. Taft will give at the White House, June 19th. Records of the White House and State Department have been carefully searched to find the names of living blood relations of all former Presidents, and the list is believed now to be complete except the relatives of President McKinley.

The White House has appealed to George B. Cortelyou, former Secretary to Mr. McKinley, for the names of members of the McKinley family, who are still living and invitations will be forwarded them with all possible expedition.

Just how many of the invitations will be accepted is not known at the White House. Colonel and Mrs. Roosevelt will be unable to be present, but it is probable that members of the Roosevelt family will attend the reception Monday night.

Elaborate preparations have been made for the entertainment of probably the largest crowd that has ever been present at a function in the White House. The mansion itself will be lighted throughout with hundreds of electric lamps; the grounds in the west will be made as nearly like day as artificial light can make them; two bands will furnish music and the fountain in the rear of the house will be played upon by a big search light erected on the east front of the State, War and Navy building just across from the White House.

Unless bad weather interferes with the plan, President and Mrs. Taft will receive on the lawn back of the White House. Major A. W. Butt, the President's aide, who makes the presidential expectations that more than 5,000 guests will be present.

Miss Helen Taft will assist in receiving the guests.

The White House lawn will not be the only attractive point during the evening.

The engineer band will be stationed in the East room, where dancing will begin just as the guests arrive. In the State dining room and on the east terrace a buffet luncheon sufficient for thousands of people will be served.

Members of the President's family and the family of Mrs. Taft are already beginning to reach Washington.

END OF COX CASE.

Political Leader of Cincinnati Charged With Perjury.

Cincinnati, June 16.—Unless Prosecuting Attorney Henry T. Hunt can prove beyond a reasonable doubt that he is not guilty of perjury, the case of George B. Cox, political leader and financier, was charged with perjury was reached today.

Judge William Dickson on hearing a motion from the prosecuting attorney today asking for a re-hearing of the case over-ruled the motion. In the same breath he quashed the second indictment against Cox, the prosecutor previously having announced that he would elect that Cox be tried on the first indictment. One of two indictments had already been quashed by Judge Dickson and it was the intention of the prosecution to bring Cox to trial on the other indictment.

VOUCHER MYSTERY YET TO BE SOLVED

Clerk Tells House Committee He was Requested to Keep Matter Secret.

DISCLOSURE NEW FEATURE

Serious View Taken of Matter by the State Department Officials—Disbursing Clerk Questioned by Committee.

Washington, June 16.—Thomas Morrison, disbursing clerk of the State Department, told the House Committee on Expenditures in that department today, that he had been instructed, when the missing voucher in the Day portrait case under investigation was found on the floor of his office, a few days ago, to keep still about the discovery. This instruction, he said, was given him by Mr. Wilbur J. Carr, chief of the consular bureau, who said it was not advisable to say much about it as it would be investigated.

The disclosure was made when Chairman Hamlin asked him if he had made any further attempt since his examination a few days ago to discover how the long missing voucher came to be on the floor of his office.

The serious view taken of the matter by State Department officials was reflected in a copy of a letter from Charles Denby, consul general at Vienna, Austria, former chief clerk of the State Department under Secretary Root when the first investigation into the mystery of $2,450 voucher for an $800 portrait was made. Secretary Knox submitted this letter, dated Vienna, May 30th, 1911, and a cablegram previously received.

Answering Mr. Knox's first cablegram for an explanation of the portrait payment, Mr. Denby cabled from Vienna on May 30th:

"No written report was made. Careful preliminary investigation failed to convince department that criminal charges could be sustained."

Reporting by mail Mr. Denby explained that the voucher discrepancy was discovered in 1906 when the department negotiated for the portrait of Secretary Hay and that prior to the Root regime it was customary to include in one voucher smaller sums paid for a number of expenses out of the appropriation allotted to the department to be expended at the Secretary's discretion.

As to the result of the investigation conducted by the Department, 1906, which Mr. Denby says was never known outside of the department the former chief clerk reported:

"How far the alleged irregularities in the use of the particular fund in question were within the knowledge of Secretary Hay could not be ascertained as he died in 1905, in which year also Mr. Michael went as consul to Calcutta. Such practices were not continued under Secretary Root, but reports were brought to my knowledge while chief clerk that the practice had existed previously."

"In view of the entire lack of reliable proof of misappropriation of funds, the inevitable unpleasant criticism of the administration of an honored man, which would result in public action, the incident was passed over and no official action was taken."

Mr. Morrison explained to the committee further today that on the day he paid the $2,450 in cash to former Chief Clerk Michael, on June 18, 1904, he had ordered his clerk to insert the words "two hundred and fifty dollars" in the printed voucher, and that half an hour after he had paid the money to Michael he inquired what the payment was for and was told in Michael's office that it was for the Day portrait. Notations on the back, which appeared later, referring to emergency payments for diplomatic business. Mr. Morrison declared were not on the voucher that day.

WOOLEN COMPANY DEFENDED.

Resolution for Investigation Taken Up in the House.

Washington, June 16.—Defense of the American Woollen Company, a resolution for the investigation of which is pending, was made in the House today by Representative Weeks of Massachusetts, who declared that the company could not be considered a trust under any definition of monopoly he had ever heard.

The woollen schedule occupied the House all of today. Representatives Weeks and Longworth, were among those who spoke against the bill and Representatives Macon and Oldfield, both of Arkansas, and Ayres, of New York, for it.

The House held a night session, as Chairman Underwood, of the Ways and Means Committee, desires to have all general debate on the bill closed by Monday next.

While no date has been fixed, Mr. Underwood hopes to reach a vote by the middle of next week.

Washington, June 16.—The stables of the Old St. Asaph course in Alexandria county, Virginia, known in the 90s to racing men all over the country, were destroyed by fire today. The blaze is supposed to have originated from a carelessly dropped match.

WARE-KRAMER TOBACCO CASE

Depositions Yesterday to Show Intensity of American's Selling Campaigns—Discounts and Coupons—Officers Meet.

Raleigh, N. C., June 16.—The deposition in the case of Ware-Kramer Company against the American Tobacco Company, read today in the Federal Court, tended to show that Ware-Kramer cigarettes were put out of business by means of coupons, premiums, free goods and campaigns by the American Tobacco Company for its products.

That special discounts for handling the American Tobacco Company goods were given, was also put in evidence. The first witness to be examined in person was J. G. Ball, a wholesale merchant of Raleigh. He said the intense campaign, the coupons and free goods of the American Tobacco Company made the Ware-Kramer business drop. The court adjourned until Monday.

A number of affidavits by tobacco jobbers in Charlotte, Atlanta, Washington, Charleston and Columbia and the oral testimony of the one Raleigh dealer were features of the progress of the suit in which a recess was taken at 2 o'clock this afternoon to Monday in order that the jurors might have opportunity to visit their homes in this and neighboring counties. The evidence was a continuation of the purpose on the part of the plaintiff to show by the jobbers that the use of single and double coupons, free goods and special concessions of various kinds unlawfully by the American Tobacco Company, drove the "White Rolls" cigarettes that Ware-Kramer Co. made off of the market in every section of the country they entered.

Chas. P. Moody, of Charlotte, testified that The American Tobacco Co. sold the bulk of the goods in the Charlotte territory, but didn't know that it controlled the market. Tobacco coupons, tags and concessions of other sorts being the methods employed to drive out the last competitor, White Rolls, of Ware-Kramer Co. He did not think that a jobber could successfully handle tobacco unless he were handling the A. T. Co. goods. He said, though that he had understood that the Ware-Kramer Co. at times gave "free goods" with large orders.

Lewis N. Schiff, of Charlotte, deposed to the effect that the American Tobacco Co., controls the tobacco market in the Charlotte territory, free goods, coupons, tags and concessions of other sorts being the methods employed to drive out the last competitor, White Rolls, of Ware-Kramer Co. He did not think that a jobber could successfully handle tobacco unless he were handling the A. T. Co. goods. He said, though that he had understood that the Ware-Kramer Co. at times gave "free goods" with large orders.

The Atlanta jobbers were W. J. Govan, T. H. Pitts, W. N. Tumlin, J. Goodman, Jr., Harry Silverman, W. F. Mills, J. L. Carr, W. I. Jones. Also there was Harry W. Myer, Washington. These all testified to similar conditions of the tobacco trade during the cigarette war involving the Ware-Kramer Co., White Rolls, J. L. Carr, Jr., said the selling features of Piedmonts were coupons and baseball pictures that were these features were put on their "almost knocked White Rolls in the head." W. N. Tumlin brought out the feature that coupons and premiums like White Rolls on his market. The customers liked White Rolls best, he said, but they liked that two cent rebate that use coupons gave them.

In view of the trend of the evidence to show that it was the coupon feature of the American Tobacco Co., that won out in the driving out of the Ware-Kramer Co., goods as competitors, there appears the purpose on the part of counsel for the defense to contend that the use of coupons was in no way illegal at the time they were being used as indicative in the depositions. It was in 1897 that Congress passed a law prohibiting the use of coupons, but this was repealed in 1902 and the use of coupons has since that time been legal, having through the repeal of the prohibitive law, the sanction of Congress.

There was oral testimony today just before the recess by Jessie Hall, jobber, of Raleigh. He told of the tobacco conditions here just about as they were presented through the depositions of the Charlotte and the Atlanta jobbers previously read.

The court will tomorrow in chambers, without the jury, consider with contending counsel, the matter of the formal issues that are to be submitted for the jury.

There was held here today a conference of the members of the executive committee of the North Carolina sanatorium for the treatment of tuberculosis, located at Montrose, the special purpose being to discuss the needs of the institution and plans for necessary improvements. A resident physician is to be procured at once, and a second new man is to be installed to assist in care of patients of whom there were 32 last week. Here for the conference were Dr. J. R. Gordon, of Guilford; Dr. Eugene Blair, of Glendon; ex-Senate Senator Blair, of Montgomery.

A DEEPER INQUIRY INTO SUGAR TRUST

Trials and Temptations of Beet Sugar Industry told To the Committee.

HOW OXNARDS WERE ENRICHED

Made Half Million Profit Through Sale of Refinery—Protest Against Reduction of Tariff on Raw Sugar—Details.

Washington, June 16.—The story of the birth of the beet sugar industry in America, its trials and temptations ever since and how the Oxnard Brothers were enriched by more than a million dollars profit through "the little transaction" of selling their cane sugar refinery in Brooklyn valued at $200,000 to the first sugar "trust" in 1887, were the features in the testimony that Henry T. Oxnard gave today to the House Sugar Investigation Committee.

Mr. Oxnard was on the stand all day and will be followed Monday by James H. Post, president of the National Sugar Refining Company.

Mr. Oxnard assigned as his reason for attempting to introduce the making of sugar beets in this country the sale of the "trust" of his refinery at Brooklyn and his belief that the introduction of the beet sugar industry would be "profitable and patriotic." He then told the story of the organization of the American Beet Sugar Company.

Of that $200,000 company, he said the Oxnard Brothers at one time owned 60 per cent. He would not admit that this stock was watered, testifying that the valuation of the property was about $12,000,000, while the preferred stock today was worth about $7,500,000. He was unable to tell why the capitalization was fixed at $20,000,000, saying that was the "banker's business."

"What induced you to sell your stock?" asked Representative Jackson, of Arkansas.

"There was no inducement," was the response.

Representative Madison asked Mr. Oxnard if in reality the American Sugar Refining Company "had not tried to use its power in 1901 to drive the beet sugar refiners out of business by unfair competition, that is, cutting prices below cost in the Missouri river territory."

"I think it is a fair presumption that it was designed to drive us out," replied Mr. Oxnard.

"Why didn't they succeed?" continued the Congressman.

"Well, our contracts with the grocers were to sell at a price less than the 'open' market price on the day of delivery. The American Sugar Refining Company evidently thought by reducing the price about the time of our deliveries that we would be unable to fill our contracts. But that word 'open' saved us. We told the grocers sugar could not be purchased in the 'open' market at the reduced price. If they could, we authorized them as our agent to buy a large quantity for us. They could not do so."

Mr. Oxnard said that the only time the American Beet Sugar Refining Company had any agreement with the American Refining Company was in 1902 when the former became the "selling agency" of the latter. That contract was cancelled, he said, "when Wayne McVeagh, a lawyer, in 1906 gave an opinion that it would send them to the penitentiary if they continued it."

"He protested against the reduction of the tariff on raw sugar but added that he would leave it to the 'refiners' to fight for the duty on refined sugar."

"What will make sugar cheaper?" asked Chairman Hardwick.

"Leaving it alone until the beet sugar industry is able to compete with the world. The advances in the industry have been rapid here and they will go on if you give the industry a chance."

FLAMES IN PRISON CELL.

One Convict Dead and Second Very Likely to Succumb.

Philadelphia, June 16.—As the result of a fire in the cell they occupied in the Eastern penitentiary in this city, James Dougherty died today from inhaling flames and James Crowley is not expected to live.

Good conduct prisoners at the penitentiary are permitted to smoke and it is believed that the bed clothing became ignited from a match.

Trenton, N. J., June 16.—The Citizens' Bank of Norfolk is not a creditor of the Norfolk Silk Mills, as was stated in a dispatch from this city last night, which announced that the silk mills had filed a petition in bankruptcy. The only connection of the bank with the silk mills was as trustee under a first mortgage bond issue for $95,000, listed in court here as a liability of the failed concern.

THE CITY LEAGUE GAMES.

Fine Exhibition Promised With Greatly Strengthened Teams.

The management of the City Baseball League promises everyone who pays a quarter across to Mr. Huntington at League Park this afternoon, two of the swiftest games of the national league that have been seen this season. The management deserves better support than was given the classy exhibitions last Saturday, and are confidently expecting it this afternoon. The A. C. L. and W. L. I. teams will contest at 3 o'clock, and at 5 o'clock the Y. M. C. A. and Boys' Brigade will "eat 'em up" at an elaborate nine course spread. The soldiers will have Duke, the star college southpaw on the firing line, opposed by Green, who didn't even get started last Saturday like he will this afternoon.

In the second game the Y. M. C. A. will have a run for their money in the Brigade team, which has been greatly strengthened the past week. "Red" Quinney, said to be able to show some stunts that have not been yet exhibited will twirl for them and Bill Watson, Jr., will be at the receiving end. The Y. M. C. A. will put either Blue or Shepard in the box, both of whose records have been good, very good, so far. Blue made serious trouble for the Railroaders last week, and in the event that he is put in there will be lively doings, as he will endeavor to surpass his record of last Saturday, when he held them to four hits, three of which were barely scratches. Three of the teams are now tied in the percentage column and today's games will cause changing all around.

An interesting event before the first game will be the presentation to Cahle Terry of a check for $50 given by the Bull Durham Tobacco Company for swatting the B. sign three weeks ago.

WOMAN'S TENNIS EVENT.

Miss Florence Sutton Wins Championship from Miss Sears.

Philadelphia, June 16.—The Woman's National Lawn Tennis championship will stay in California another year. This was settled today by the result of the final round in singles in the National Tournament at the Philadelphia Cricket Club, when Miss Florence Sutton, of Los Angeles, defeated Miss Eleanor Sears, of Boston. Tomorrow Miss Sutton will meet in the challenge round Miss Hazel Hotchkiss, of Berkeley, Cal., present champion of the United States. The score 6-2, 6-1, fairly indicates the relative ability of the players.

Miss Sears and Miss Hotchkiss won in straight sets from Miss Roberts and Miss Ostheimer, allowing them only three games in all.

Weekly Shoot of Gun Club.
The weekly shoot of the Wilmington Gun Club, at its grounds at 17th and Castle streets, was well attended yesterday, in spite of the high wind which was not conducive to good shooting.

Dr. J. H. Dreher was high man with Mr. Geo. W. Penny second. The Boylan & Hancock shoe store has offered a pair of $5 shoes as a prize for high gun next Friday and a good attendance is expected.

GUNBOAT BRINGS HORNET.

Noted for Its Filibuster Expeditions. From Honduras.

New Orleans, June 23.—The steamer Hornet, noted for its filibustering expeditions, arrived at the mouth of the Mississippi river this morning from Puerto Cortes, Honduras, in tow of the United States gunboat Wheeling. The Hornet is being brought to New Orleans for delivery to the United States marshal in connection with a libel filed by the Federal government alleging violation of the neutrality and admiralty laws.

The Hornet left New Orleans on December 22nd last, and at Ship Island, near Gulfport, Miss., Gen. Manuel Bonilla, Gen. Lee Christmas and others connected with the recent Honduras revolution were taken aboard. The vessel was seized at Truxillo, Honduras, one month later by the United States gunboat Tocoma, and has since been detained by the United States government in Honduras waters.

Gen. Bonilla claims the Hornet was unlawfully seized beyond the boundaries of the United States and, it is said, expects to make claim against this government for the action taken.

CASTRO REPORT FALSE.

Never Was Aboard Mysterious Steamer "Consul Grosbeck."

Washington, June 16.—The last scene of the comedy of errors involving former President Castro, of Venezuela, was laid in Port au Prince today when the Haitian minister for foreign affairs waited upon American Minister Furness and solemnly assured him that Castro was not now and had not been at all on board of the mysterious steamer "Consul Grosbeck."

Moreover, he told Mr. Furness that such had been the precautions taken by the Haitian government, he was sure that Castro could not have slipped ashore without being detected. The minister admitted, however, that there was no one on the lookout who could identify Castro if he had been there. The minister told Mr. Furness that the captain of the Consul Grosbeck had admitted he was joking when he said the Venezuelan was on his ship.

ACCUSED ACCUSES ACCUSER.

Chattanooga Lawyer Charges Perjury Against Witness.

Chattanooga, June 13.—Charles Smith, the witness in the recent disbarment proceeding against Judge Lewis Shepherd and H. M. Dougherty, who testified that he was paid $500 to swear in the Dr. J. W. Sherman murder case that Thomas R. Norman, whom Sherman killed, offered himself $500 to kill Sherman, was arrested last yesterday afternoon on a warrant charging him with perjury and sworn out by Judge Shepherd. Smith was bound over by the committing magistrate to await the action of the grand jury.

UNCOVERING MAINE WRECK.

Encounter Difficulty In Removing Masses of Mud from Vessel.

Havana, June 16.—No further developments of importance in connection with the uncovering of the wreck of the battleship Maine are probable within the next ten or twelve days, said General W. H. Dixby tonight, following the complete circumnavigation of the wreck in a launch by the board of American officers who are supervising the work. A minute examination was made of all portions of the ship now exposed to view.

This survey convinced the board that before further exploration is possible it will be necessary to remove masses of mud, aggregating hundreds of tons, on the spar deck and almost completely filling the interior spaces of the ill-fated vessel. This great portion of mud is tenacious, tar-like mass, extremely difficult of disintegration and removal, and completely prevents any satisfactory examination being made.

In many places the mud is five to six feet thick and can only be removed by the use of streams of water projected by the most powerful pumps. This is especially to be observed on the starboard side of the quarter deck of the Maine which is completely buried in mud.

The water level in the coffer dam tonight stood at ten feet below normal which is somewhat higher than this morning owing to a cessation of pumping and consequent slight percolation of water. This leakage will necessitate the caking of some sections of the cofferdam. General Dixby says, however, that constant observations by the most delicate instruments do not reveal the least indication of instability in the cofferdam, but that the officers are determined not to take the least risk, their policy being to continue work with the utmost deliberation regardless of time.

The principal result of the investigation of the wreck today was the discovery that the deterioration of the steel structure is so great as gravely imperil the project of placing bulkheads in and floating out the rear sections of the Maine. It is impossible, however, to determine positively whether this can be done until the water is further lowered, which probably will be a week hence.

PERSIAN PREMIER LEAVES.

Sudden Departure Excited Derision at Tehran Yesterday.

Tehran, June 16.—The passage by the National Council on June 13th of a bill giving W. Morgan Shuster, the American treasurer-general of Persia direct effective control of all the financial operations of Persia, had a strange sequel tonight, when Mustofi El Manakili, the premier, quitted Tehran in extraordinary haste, ostensibly bound for Europe. He did not resign the premiership, and previously had given no hint of his intended departure. He merely stated in a letter to the regent and the national council that he was obliged to depart for the sake of his health.

The action of the premier has excited derision. It is attributed to his loss of the support of the national council and his reluctance to submit to the rigorous financial control which the council has directed. It is noteworthy that the national council yesterday rejected a proposal of the premier introduced regarding the regent's civil list.

HONOR AMERICANS ABROAD.

Notable Event Marks Visits of Ships to Russia.

Cronstadt, Russia, June 16.—Three hundred men from the Russian warships Gromov and Palada, were guests of the enlisted men of the United States battleship Louisiana tonight at a dinner and moving picture exhibition. A game of baseball was played today between teams from the battleships New Hampshire and Kansas, for a cup presented by Emperor Nicholas. The Kansas men won the trophy. Five thousand persons witnessed the game.

EL PASO FEARS HIGH WATER.

Rio Grande to Reach Sixteen Feet by Monday, it is Expected.

El Paso, June 16.—The local weather bureau was notified by the district office today that the Rio Grande would reach sixteen feet in this city by Monday. As the river is already virtually at the danger stage, it is feared that the sixteen foot record will seriously affect the lower portion of the city.

AGAINST LUMBER TRUST.

Kansas City, June 16.—Harry Gorsuch, secretary of the Southwestern Lumbermen's Association, who has been questioned by the State's attorney for three days, was cross-examined by the attorneys for the defendant companies today in the hearing of the State's ouster suit against the alleged lumber trust.

STUDENTS CONVENTION.

Opened at Montreat With 400 Delegates in Attendance.

Asheville, N. C., June 16.—The 19th annual session of the Southern Students' Convention of the Young Men's Christian Association opened at Montreat tonight with an attendance of over 400 delegates, representing 12 States and Southern Institutions. The opening address was delivered by Rev. Paul B. Kohn, pastor of the Methodist Episcopal Church, South, Bell Buckle, Tenn., on "How to Get Most Out of the Convention." Rev. John Little, superintendent of Missions of the Presbyterian Church for the colored race, discussed "Religious Conditions Among the Negroes." The convention proper will open tomorrow.

New York, June 16.—The threatened strike of the coastwise seamen developed in part tonight with the calling out of employees of the Morgan Line, operated by the Southern Pacific Company between New York and New Orleans. The 4,000 employees were ordered to go out at 10 A. M. tomorrow unless all demands are conceded. Employees of other coastwise lines postponed action on the strike question until Sunday.

EASILY DECIDED

This Question Should be Answered Easily by Wilmington People.

Which is wiser—to have confidence in the opinions of your fellow-citizens, or people you know, or depend on statements made by utter strangers residing in far-away places? Read the following:

J. F. Hansley, 406 Walnut St., Wilmington, N. C., says: "My back and kidneys troubled me a great deal and I think it was due to my being on my feet so much. I suffered from dull, dragging backaches and I could not stoop without having sharp twinges in my loins. The kidney secretions were too frequent in passage and there was sediment in them. Some time ago when I heard about Doan's Kidney Pills, I got a box from Bellamy's drug store and in a few days after I began their use my pains and aches disappeared. I have felt so much better in every way since using Doan's Kidney Pills that I have no hesitation in recommending them." (Statement given February 25, 1908.)

No Trouble Since. On December 27, 1910, Mr. Hansley said: "I have had no occasion to use any kidney medicine since I took Doan's Kidney Pills some years ago and I am glad to say that they brought me lasting benefit. You are welcome to continue publishing my former statement."

TEXACO ROOFING

is made of solid, extra heavy, first quality wool felt, thoroughly saturated with Texaco Bitumen, over 90 per cent pure, and afterward finished with an extra heavy coating of the same material. TEXACO BITUMEN—over 90 per cent pure—possesses great fire-resisting properties, is not oxidized by the action of the elements, is impervious to the action of acids, fumes and gases, is not injured by the extremes of heat and cold, and remains adhesive and pliable. The weakest point of ready roofing is at the lap, due to the disintegration and hardening of the cement used, but Texaco Roofing Cement, made of bitumen over 90 per cent pure, insures a permanent waterproof lap. The principal merits of TEXACO ROOFING are: ECONOMY of first cost and application. SIMPLICITY and ease of application. PERFECTION of weather and water-resisting qualities. MAXIMUM strength and durability. FIRE-RESISTING. FLUKELESS and immunity from injury by extremes of temperature; and, last but not least, A PERMANENT L.A.P. by use of Texaco Roofing Cement, which gives security, strength and waterproofing at the weakest point of a roof.

AFFAIRS AT STATE CAPITAL

Text Book Commission Still at Work
—Handle Company, for Lincoln
ton, N. C.—Tampa, Fla., Prisoner—Other News.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Raleigh, N. C., June 16.—For the first time since the passage of the act, Lieutenant Governor Newland had occasion today to avail himself of the provision of Chapter 102, Public Laws of 1911, ratified during the last days of the recent session of the Legislature, which provides that the Lieutenant Governor shall be entitled to mileage and per diem as when serving as president of the Senate, when he finds it necessary to attend conferences of the State officers or attend other meetings on official business.

He has been here the past several days attending the sessions of the State Text Book Commission. He has found it necessary to return home for a day or two. The commission has just completed the hearings of books on arithmetic offered for adoption, having also gotten through with books on drawing, writing and reading. Grammar, geographies, histories are the principal texts yet to have hearings. The commission estimates that the work of hearing the book men is about half done and that the hearings will be over within a week.

A charter was issued today for The Lincolnton Handle Co., of Lincolnton, capital $4,000 subscribed and $500,000 authorized by McCoy Morley, D. C. Rhodes and others.

Chairman McNeill has returned from an official visit to Lexington, Rutherford and Saluda to look into the situation as to a contest for an over railroad pass at Lexington, a union station at Rutherford and a change of the location of the Southern depot at Saluda. Orders are to be made in these matters very soon.

Here last evening between trains was Deputy Sheriff Geo. A. Bell, of Tampa, Fla., having in custody W. F. Pound, who is wanted in Tampa for having married a wealthy woman there when he had a wife in Birmingham and also for leaving Tampa with a considerable sum of money that his Tampa wife had given him to buy a shoe store in which he had been clerking for some time. The Tampa woman he married is said to be worth nearly $100,000 and she is 21 years older than Pound. Pounds had been captured in Spring Hope where he was to have taken a place on the police force of the town yesterday, having told it there that he was seeking to regain his health by walking from New York to Atlanta, was out of money and must have some employment. In reality he had a few weeks ago escaped from an officer who had taken him at Pawtucket, R. I., and gotten as far as Norfolk where he jumped from the car window while the officer was answering some inquiry by a girl on the train as to what train she should take there. The officer traced the fugitive to Spring Hope and procured his arrest.

The Black Mountain contest over the majority of the town has reached the Attorney General's office here in the shape of a petition for quo warranto proceedings in the Buncombe county Superior Court to determine whether W. C. Hall or L. W. Morgan was really elected mayor of the town. Hall is in charge of the office and Morgan, with Chas. A. Webb as counsel, is seeking to have himself installed in his stead.

The First National Bank of Columbus, Ohio, has been awarded the $10,000 bond issue by the Wake county town of Wendell, at a premium of $238. There were nine bidders, several of them being at par, only.

It is predicted by those in close touch with the work that the tax valuation in Raleigh will reach $28,000,000 this year as compared with $21,600,000 previous valuation. The assessors and appraisers are just now completing their work.

TIGERS IN HAMLET.

Police Making a Record For Their Activities Now.

(Special Star Correspondence.)
Hamlet, N. C., June 15.—The night on blind tigers goes merrily on. Yesterday when J. H. Anderson returned to his furniture shop from a visit to the postoffice, Special Officer Shary was sitting on the steps. For reasons best known to himself he continued on the other side until he spied a cat. C. B. Wright. The chief had a paper he intended to read to Mr. Anderson but said Anderson scented the battle afar and it is said by those who witnessed the affair from a distance that new speed records were established on the Hoffman road. As Mr. Anderson left no information as to his stopping place, it is figured that he is running yet. The officers found eight gallons of ethyl alcohol and fusel oils in the furniture shop.

Andrew Mosteller keeps a pool room in the rear of the Hanson block. The mayor held him under bond for having more than the amount allowed by law on hand.

The new administration seems determined to clean the town. Clinch row has been rid of six of its delinquents and the owners have been advised to secure a better class of tenants in the future.

Much credit is due the young mayor W. E. Davis, and his officers C. B. Wright and D. B. Brown.

McSTEE HELD FOR MURDER.

Slayer of Arthur Brown Plead Not Guilty at Albany.

Albany, N. Y., June 16.—Charged with murder in the first degree, John V. McStee, the theatrical manager from New Orleans, who shot and killed Arthur J. Brown, first baseman on the Albany State League baseball team last night, was arraigned in police court today. His right eye and right cheek were bruised and discolored. He pleaded not guilty and was held to await the action of the grand jury.

Mrs. McStee, who was with Brown at the time of the shooting, was questioned today by the district attorney and is being detained as a witness.

STATE TRAINED NURSES.

Annual Convention of Association at Greensboro Two Days.
(Special Star Correspondence.)
Greensboro, N. C., June 16.—Opening Wednesday night in the State Normal building with excellent addresses by Dr. Charles Robertson on "The Trained Nurse and the Doctor's Assistant," by Dr. W. P. Beall, on the "History of Nursing," and Dr. J. W. Long on the "Relation of the Trained Nurse to Surgical Progress," the annual convention of the North Carolina Trained Nurses' Association has been in progress here during the past two days.

At the session yesterday afternoon, after hearing reports from the various heads of committees and from the alumnae board, interesting and instructive papers were read by Miss Annie Surgeon, of Raleigh, and Miss W. B. Pratt, of Charlotte. At 4 o'clock an adjournment was had to the new State Normal Infirmary building where a delightful afternoon tea was followed by an automobile trip to St. Leo's hospital, where an informal reception was tendered, and an inspection of the wards was made in a sociable way.

FINED FOR BEER SELLING.

Rocky Mount Man Fined Under Heavy Hand of Law Yesterday.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Rocky Mount, N. C., June 16.—The disposal of four and a half barrels of "Budweiser" during the past two days cost Mr. O. C. Potway, a near-by dealer of this city, a fine of $250 in the city court today. Mayor Pro Tem W. R. Lancaster ruled that while it is usual thing sentences to the road are given in violation of the prohibition law in this city, the fact that Mr. Potway was open and above board in his sales of the amber fluid was in his favor and he would be let off with the fine. Notice of appeal has been given and bond was fixed at $300.

C., June 14.—The coroner's jury investigating the death of Mary Lawler, who died Tuesday at the home of relatives in the upper part of this county, returned a verdict today that the woman came to her death from a whipping administered by her husband, Andrew Lawler. The whipping occurred at the Lawler home near Saluda, N. C., and was the result of his wife's objection to the storing of liquor in her home. Lawler was arrested today near Arlington in this county and is being held by the authorities.

WHITEVILLE NOTES.

Wedding of Note—Mining Stock Sold to Columbus Negroes.

(Special Star Correspondence.)

Whiteville, N. C., June 15.—Wednesday afternoon, June 14th, Dr. Leaman Baggett, of Tabor, and Miss Carrie Boyd Butler were married at the home of the bride's parents, at Pireway, in this county. Dr. Baggett is a leading and most popular young physician, with a splendid future and the bride a distinguished and honored citizen of this county, who was for several years, sheriff of Columbus and also represented his people in the General Assembly. The bride is a charming and bright young lady and a great favorite with all. No young couple ever started life under brighter auspices or who are attended by more hearty good wishes by everyone who knows them. They will make their future home at Tabor. Besides being a successful physician with an extended practice, Dr. Baggett is one of our most progressive citizens who makes a success of whatever he undertakes.

A case was yesterday tried before Magistrate Baldwin, at Vineland, that looks like a repetition of the forty-acre-and-a-half scheme of reconstruction days. Some months since a white man, named C. E. James, came from Pender county, but has traveled over the South selling stock to negroes, spent some time around Cerro Gordo, Boardman and Chadbourne, selling stock to darkeys in the Silver Queen Mining Company, of Parral, Mexico. He sold the stock at $5 per share and most of the purchasers bought thirty shares, giving two notes for $15 each, one payable in June and the other in November. He shrewdly selected colored people who owned little farms or other property and were responsible for their obligations. He sold a good deal of this stock, James stated that the mine was a splendid piece of property and looked like a fortune. He was a director and the famous, or rather infamous, Bishop Turner, of Georgia, its president. All went well until the first payment became due, when the victims began to sneer. So suit was brought against Fletcher and Carrie Atkins for the amount of first note signed. Atkins is a hard working and well-thought-of colored man, and young Mr. Brown, a white neighbor, advised him to resist payment. He brought Atkins to Whiteville and employed Mr. Walter Power, a rising and successful young lawyer, to conduct the case, when the case came up for trial before Magistrate Baldwin, Mr. Power, for his client, acknowledged the genuineness of the signature, and then gave notice of appeal to a higher court, and where the case will be heard. Atkins was not required to give bond, as he is responsible. Several darkeys in this county paid these notes from their hard-earned money, but others are resisting payment, as they feel assured that the stock in the Mexican mine is a brass-plated gold brick.

The Modern Wash-day

Time was when The Wash was a weekly nightmare, wash-day dinner a by-word.

The New Perfection Oil Cook-stove has changed all that. Once the wash-boiler is on the stove, it leaves you free to attend to the dinner or any other work.

You can move a New Perfection where you please and light it in a moment. It requires no attention after that. A single gallon of oil lasts all three burners seven hours or more. No coal or wood to carry; no fire to feed; no soot nor ashes. It keeps a kitchen or laundry cool and clean. It cooks to perfection, with the least trouble and expense.

Made with 1, 2 and 3 burners, with long, tortoise-like enameled chimneys. Handsomely finished throughout. The 2- and 3-burner stoves can be had with or without a cabinet top, which is fitted with deep shelves, towel racks, etc. (Sole everywhere; or write for descriptive circular to the nearest agency of the Standard Oil Company, (Incorporated).)

Saturday, June 17, 1911.

Don't forget to give full vent to your increasing prejudice against the typhoid fly and the malarial mosquito.

"Stick to your friends," says the Chicago News. That's all right, but while we are sticking to our friends
we have to be careful, not to get stuck.

A few days ago a Pittsburg man started to go to bed and was savagely attacked by a mad dog which he found lying on his bed. This was a variation from seeing snakes.

The Jacksonville Times-Union utters this: "The man with the knowing smile has yet much to learn."
However, the provoking rascal may know more about us than we think he knows.

Reciprocity with Canada may be plucked for President Taft, but it depends on whether the Root amendment runs down so deep that it will give the interests too good a hold for it to be turned loose.

Do men learn from the experience of others? There are many sad experiences and horrible examples before us all the time, but men go right on following in the footsteps of those who have gone to the bad or gone to destruction.

The splendid credit of North Carolina cities, towns, counties, and townships show that people who invest money know where to get it back. If investors put money in your cities, towns, counties and townships what are you hanging back for?

The Houston Chronicle remarks enpassant: "A man may do some loving with a little talent, but to love perfectly requires genius." Since,
however, the object of his affections
cannot maintain a bewitching existence, or neither talent nor genius, he should have the spondulix as a guarantee of being seriously considered.

Wanted—A young man of good address, who can speak and write Spanish, to solicit the trade in Central and South American countries for Wilmington's manufacturing and commercial interests. Don't all apply at once, but study Spanish, for just such an advertisement will have to be answered some of these days when Wilmington gets a move on her.

If we owned Wilmington, we would approve its unequalled geographic position. We would commend its location on the Cape Fear down whose prospective 30-foot channel there will float this year a foreign commerce of $30,000,000 or more, and a coastwise
and inland commerce of about $30,000, 000 more. We would congratulate ourselves on having railroad lines that distribute over a fine territory in several States and we would think it would be wise capitalists who would head for this port with a Western trunk line or two to do business with the Panama Canal. If we had wealth equal to the Rockefeller and Carnegie
"foundations," we wouldn't hesitate to establish manufacturing here so we could utilize Wilmington's ocean navigation with the world, its 400 miles of river navigation and its splendid railroad facilities, all of which can be brought into service for getting coal
and raw material by water and rail
and for distributing manufactured products by the steamer load or the train load. In truth, if we had wanted anything else to make Wilmington the ideal Southern port and manufacturing centre, we would have given our order for the superb and exceptional climate that is one of Wilmington's chiefest blessings and assets. You get it as bad as that and invest your money in Wilmington without any fear whatsoever.

IN THE NATION'S GARDEN SPOT.

On account of the scarcity of pocket change, we regret to state that $25,- 000 is about all that State Senator W.
S. Cobb, of Lumber Bridge, will get for his Irish potato crop this season. Owing to the dry weather he will ship
only 5,000 barrels, which is a short crop. However, the price is $5.00 a barrel compared with $2.50 last year, which will make his crop bring him as much as 10,000 barrels last year.

Of course, it is just the same in money value to Mr. Cobb as if he had raised a full crop, but the poor railroads didn't get a chance to haul but half as many barrels as they would have done had there been a full crop.
The railroads will fare a little better later on, however, as Mr. Cobb will have some $25,000 or $30,000 more of farm traffic for them to transport to the Northern markets. At the same time the railroads are not kicking, for these eastern North Carolina farms can furnish them dead loads of traffic, and for that reason all railroads like to run through the Nation's Garden Spot.

When eastern North Carolina farmers and truckers get out and tickle
the earth and begin to gather in more than a million dollars worth of strawberries and many millions worth of early truck, potatoes, peanuts, tobacco, cotton, corn and other worrisome
freight, it makes trouble for the railroads. The railroads are compelled to run out more locomotives, put on more trains, employ more men and get a move on them, so they can take all these North Carolina money crops to about 30,000,000 hungry Northerners
and Canadians, who depend on the happy and thrifty North Carolina growers for the good things of this life.

The consuming ability of those Northerners and Canadians is very great, but North Carolina farmers will do their best to furnish them the gold medal products that are being shipped to them by the train load at all hours of the day and night. The railroads are also doing their best and are having more cars built, are ordering more locomotives and other equipment, are spending millions of dollars for double tracking and are investing piles of capital to keep the Southern producers from getting ahead of them.
The fact is, the consumers as well as the growers will be gratified to learn that the Atlantic Coast Line, the Seaboard Air Line and the Norfolk Southern always furnish the finest kind of service for handling eastern North Carolina products, and that, in spite of the fact that it will be impossible to keep thousands of homeseekers from coming to the Nation's Garden Spot
to increase production, the railroads propose to keep ahead of the transportation demands of this rapidly developing country.

During the past strawberry season,
about 30 days of which brought in checks aggregating about a million dollars, the Atlantic Coast Line demonstrated its splendid, modern methods of handling perishable freights which had to be picked one day in North Carolina and eaten with cream
the next day in New York and scores of Northern cities. It was a sight to see long trains of refrigerator cars,
bearing nothing but strawberries,
making passenger schedule time so Northerners could have strawberry shortcake next day for dinner. These iced trains left by the score every day and the ponderous locomotives
which hauled them had to keep chock-ful of coal so the precious freight could move swiftly to its destination.

This is where the far away coal fields come in for their share of North Carolina strawberry money, but it is only worth while mentioning this to show how wonderfully the benefits of an industry ramify in a hundred different ways. While the coal miner is slinging his pick in the bowels of the earth, delving into the coal seams, he never stops to think he is doing his share towards making it possible for North Carolina's luscious strawberries
to be placed in the markets of hundreds of Northern cities. One of the curious things to us is the countless directions in which the benefits of any one industry ramify, and we doubt whether the slickest industrial economist could really succeed in tracing the far-reaching effects of one industry upon another.

If we didn't dig in the coal seams
and tickle North Carolina land with the implements of husbandry there would be just that much less doing in the United States of America. It is industry that makes prosperity, and when we are not doing things there is a shutdown, the bad effects of which ramify in the same direction in which the benefits go when we set some great industry agoing in North Carolina.

Since this article also begins to ramify it may as well be stopped
right where it has drifted.

OUR SENATORIAL GLADIATORS.

North Carolina generally is being congratulated upon the splendid array of ability that will contest for a seat in the United States Senate, to be filled by the next General Assembly. It is not Senator Simmons' seat,
as some of our contemporaries put it,
but it is the seat of any distinguished North Carolinian who can get in the race and win. Four of the State's honored sons have an eye on it and have disclosed their willingness to go before the people and make known their ambitions, but there isn't any limit to the number who may desire to assert their prerogative and get in the game.

Of course, it is not Senator Simmons' seat they are after. Senator Simmons' seat is safe, for he is holding all the seat he has any title to.
However, it may be his seat, for he is one of the distinguished gentlemen to whom the vacancy looks good enough to go after. So far as the returns are in, the other contestants are Governor W. W. Kitchin, ex-Governor Chas.
B. Aycock, and Chief Justice Walter Clark. There is some fine Senatorial timber for you, and it is to North Carolina's credit that any man of the four will measure up to the Senatorial standard. In fact, it is only North Carolina's extreme modesty in always desiring to be recognized as the real thing rather than seem to be bumpis-tious about it, that she does not get beside herself and banter other fortunate States to show up a quartette that will equal them. However,
those four gladiators "speak for themselves," as the saying goes, and the voters of the State will be pretty apt
to hear them speaking for themselves when they get down to business on the hustings.

Why, sure they will take to the hustings, for everyone of them is built that way, and when they open up it will be a campaign of education. Some people are rather deprecating that it will be a cantankerous campaign, but while there need not necessarily be anything like a snake killing time, it is not reasonable to expect a real dull time. The four of them are well supplied with ammunition and no one need fear that it is not going to be used. We rather think, however, it is to be a dignified, illuminating campaign, and there isn't any reason why it shouldn't be. However, there is no guarantee as to what kind of shot are to be fired and as to the direction in which the shot will scatter.

No one need dread a battle between giants, so it is intellectual artillery
that is to be fired. It will give the people the opportunity to take measure of the statesmanship that will be on display, and it is well for two or three reasons. In the first place, the voters of the State want to know what their Senatorial timber stands for, so they can send to the Senate Chamber the man who will honor the State and get for North Carolina all that is coming to her. Another reason, and a fine
one at that, is that such discussions
as North Carolina evidently is to hear,
make men. It brings what is in them to the surface. It arouses the latent powers, and it develops the debative, controversial ability they ought to have when they go to the Senate to measure arms with men who are sent there by other States to take care of themselves if anybody goes up against them. Attrition makes genius fly out of men, and it was that which developed the powers of Webster, Calhoun, Clay, and those giants of debate who are the pride of America without regard to the merits of their contentions or the shade of their politics. In judging those great men, we disassociate everything from consideration
but their ability to expound, their mastery of logic, their readiness in repartee, and their maturity and equipment as sound reasoners and well prepared speakers. It takes a clash of flint and steel to make the sparks fly, and had it not been for the great issues and the big men to handle them we never would have had those powerful debates in the Senate
when America's great statesmen met
each other in the forum.

We are glad to have the opportunity of seeing all there is in Simmons, Aycock, Clark and Kitchin and we don't think North Carolinians are going to be disappointed in the quality of their deliverances. It may not be a joint debate, but it may be a long distance battle, yet, at all events, we are prepared to believe that it will be blackgun against thunder—although a kind of statesmanlike, Chesterfield-ian, knightly contest for a place of high honor. If the battle ceases with no wounded lion to slink to his lair,
it will be bigness for four men and additional fame for the State. The voters of North Carolina who suspend their judgment and wait to see where the lightning will strike, have the least to fear from an able, enlightening and exhaustive discussion of the issues they have to pass upon at the ballot box. "Lead thine ear to wisdom and speak afterwards."

BALTIMORE BOOSTERS.

The advertising men of the United States and Canada, or more properly speaking, the professional ad writers who know the business, will hold their annual convention in Boston, August 1st to 4th. This has gotten to be one of the biggest events in the country,
so that the ad writers' convention is largely sought after by some of the most ambitious cities of the country.
Baltimore is after next year's convention, and so is Atlanta and Dallas, and just to show how the boosters of those cities are going up against each other, read this from the Baltimore Sun:

"The Advertising Club is one of the liveliest organizations in this city, and it is laying plans to capture the next national convention of advertising men, which will be held this year in Boston from August 1st to 4th. The Boston Post records that the Baltimoreans will bring a steamer-load of enthusiasts and will advertise the city
by various means, among others by hundreds of bottles thrown overboard containing messages that will be picked up on whatever shore the wave and tides may carry them. The Dallas delegation has secured an entire floor that will be devoted to an exhibit of the products of Texas. But the Georgians have attracted most attention

by proposing to sing "Oklie" in chorus in Fausell Hall, to the accompaniment of bands and local singers. The Baltimoreans might take a leaf out of Atlanta's book by singing "Maryland, My Maryland," and "Back, back, Back to Baltimore" in the same historic hall. As some of the advertising men may not have cultivated their "singing voice," it would be well to start practice at once. If they would take along with them three or four of Baltimore's tenors and baritones
and basses to lead, they could get up a chorus that would make Boston ring."

This shows how many different things a genuine booster has to do.
He has to talk and sing and know all the wily tricks of a winner. Boosters simply have to put their wits to work to get up all sorts of novel schemes and perform more original stunts than the opposition boosters,
or get left and have the laugh bestowed upon them. Of course, those Baltimore, Atlanta and Dallas boosters are licensed to get up all sorts of things that haven't been thought of yet, but they are enjoined from lugging in the aurora borealis and the rainbow, for they belong to Wilmington. Whenever you see the aurora borealis or the rainbow, Wilmington should come right into the minds of everybody without any further explanation.

MAP OF BRUNSWICK.

The Star has with the compliments
of Mr. Charles Henry Smith, 6152 Kenmore avenue, Chicago, Ill., a very comprehensive map of Brunswick county. This is doubtless the first map of the county ever issued upon such an extensive scale and was made up by Mr. Smith by fitting all odd grants and deeds for land together as recorded at Southport, Mr. Smith having been occupied with this most interesting work at odd moments for 20 years. The public roads in most cases are located by actual surveys.

The Star has with the compliments
of Rand McNally & Co., a copy of the revised series of its indexed pocket
map and shippers' guide for North Carolina, editions of which are now ready for all States and Territories.
These maps contain the new census and offer in compact form the most complete and practical information it is possible to obtain. They are of the greatest aid to shippers and travelers,
as well as employees and students preparing to enter the civil and railway mail service.

CURRENT COMMENT.

Citizens of Wilmington are agitating for the laying of a "noiseless" pavement on Front street. We very much fear that the sleepily inclined won't be allowed to enjoy undisturbed slumber thereabouts much longer anyway, but if they want that particular pavement, why give it to
'em.—Charlotte Observer.

Now, Wilmington wants to change
the course of the Inland Waterways,
to include her in the route. Of course,
she will get it, for nothing feases Wilmington. We are only surprised that she does not demand that the Panama Canal be built through Wilmington.
Here's success to you Wilmington in whatever you undertake. With so many loyal citizens as you have putting together for the good of the city,
your rapid advancement must continue, and what helps Wilmington must help the whole State. We hope Southport citizens will learn from Wilmington's progressiveness in all ways,
to do a little hustling on their own account. We are going to try and wake them up to the opportunities
right in front of their doors.—Southport News.

The Atlanta Bar Association urges
that the city's present system of trial justice court be abolished and that a central court be set up instead. The justice system has been a subject of much criticism, not only in Fulton county, but elsewhere. In Fulton, grand jury after grand jury had reported against the system and urged its abolition. "The time for positive action on this issue has come," says
the Constitution, which goes on to tell of the proposed workings of the central court. Under the new system, its says, "all business will pass through the hands of one chief magistrate and one clerk. By this plan the plaintiff in a case would not be able to select the justice by whom his writ
was to be heard, and a fairer administration of the law would be insured.
Thus, too, the iniquitous fee system for bailiffs would be wiped out and many outrages that now disgrace the community would become impossible."
—Savannah News.

The Wilmington commissioners are standing pat upon one point at least—namely, that the sidewalks of that city are for the use of the public at large and are not to be obstructed for the convenience of the merchants.
There is on the statute books of Wilmington an ordinance prohibiting the display of wares upon the sidewalks
in such a manner as to obstruct passage in the slightest degree. The enforcement of this law annoys many of the merchants, and these recently presented their grievances, requesting that the Council allow the sidewalks to be used to a reasonable extent for the purpose mentioned. The newly elected commissioners, however, have conceived the idea that the folks who elected them want the law enforced
and have declined to take any action in the premises whatsoever. The matter of sidewalk obstruction is one in which it is immensely difficult to draw any line other than the one upon which the Wilmington authorities take

NEW INDUSTRIAL ENTERPRISE

Still Strong Likelihood of Landing Subsidiary Manufacturing Plant, It Is Said—Upwards of $30,000 Subscribed.

It is understood that there is still strong likelihood of landing the new manufacturing enterprise, subsidiary of a Northern company, which proposition was recently so thoroughly investigated and passed upon by the Manufacturing and Industrial Enterprise Committee of the Chamber of Commerce. Mr. Geo. A. Simpson, of Pittsburgh, who has been here several weeks in the interest of the new plant, is by no means discouraged and hopes to announce within a few days that sufficient local capital has been interested to insure the location of the enterprise here.

It was stated last night that upwards of $30,000 of the necessary $50,000 capital stock is in sight, one investor having subscribed to the extent of $15,000 and that the call for subscriptions will now be made general with every prospect of a successful culmination of the plan. At the last meeting of the Chamber of Commerce, the president of one of the National Banks moved that a business man and an attorney should go to the home office as a committee to investigate fully the processes of manufacture, etc., and that if the proposition is entirely merited the investment, after the inspection, the entire expense should be borne by the local company which will be known as the Carolina Metal Products Co., but if their report is unfavorable, then the parent company will bear all expenses of the inspection.

This was regarded as the highest test of the company's ability to "make good" on its representations and Mr. Simpson yesterday received a telegram from the home company stating that the proposition is entirely satisfactory and asking that the committee come at the earliest possible time. It is not known yet whether the committee will visit the home plant but the ready acceptance of the proposition for the fullest investigation is a strong recommendation of the company's ability to make good on anything that it presents. Mr. Simpson will remain in the city a few days longer and hopes to interest many of the enterprising men of Wilmington in the proposition.

BRUNSWICK COUNTY NEWS.

Southport Railroad Nears Completion.

Other Items of Interest.

The following items of interest in Wilmington and section are from this week's issue of the Southport News: "Work on the Wilmington, Brunswick & Southport Railroad is progressing rapidly, and if nothing unexpected happens the road will be in Southport by the night of the 30th of this month. One hundred men or more are now employed, and the steel has been laid to a point midway between Bolivia and Goresville. The Russian camp, in charge of Mr. J. C. Mintz, has completed the grading to the edge of town, having passed the city limits several days ago. The final survey will be completed today, and grading in the streets will be finished next week.

"Prof. G. L. Johnson, organist of St. James' church, Wilmington, with his young son, and his sister, Mrs. James Johnson, are stopping at the Stuart House for some time. Mrs. P. N. Currie and Miss Eunice Currie, of Wilmington, are also guests of this well known house.

"Rev. L. T. Singleton, pastor of the Methodist church, is busily engaged securing homes for the preachers and delegates who will attend the District Conference, which will convene here July 5th. Bishop Kilgo, the North Carolina bishop, is present, and his reputation as an orator and preacher is second to none in the State. Everybody who possibly can, should avail himself of the opportunity to hear Bishop Kilgo.

"The Ocean Fisheries are in luck. Their three steamers, Susquehanna, Nellie B. Day, and Compton, have been bringing in almost daily large catches of menhaden. The fish at this season are small, and light in oil, but make excellent fertilizer. Later on in the season, the run of fish will be heavier in oil and larger.

"The 1,500 friends in Southport, Dr. Wm. M. Bryan, in command of the Quarantine Station, will be glad to know he has recently been promoted to the grade of Passed Assistant Surgeon. No more popular or efficient officer has ever been in charge of our local quarantine station, and everybody is glad the doctor has been advanced.

"Miss Mary Ruark arrived home Thursday from Trinity College, Durham, after stopping a few days in Wilmington as the guest of her brother, Robert Ruark.

"Mr. and Mrs. Harry R. Bates, and little daughter, Helen, of Wilmington, were registered at the Stuart House Sunday."

MR. W. H. BANCK, ENGINEER.

His Picture Recognized on Views of the Battleship Maine.

The many friends of Mr. W. H. Banck, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Banck, of this city, were much interested yesterday to note a splendid likeness of him in some views of the wreck of the battleship Maine presented in the Star's enterprising afternoon contemporary, the evening Dispatch. Mr. Banck graduated from the North Carolina A. & M. College and is a junior engineer in the big undertaking of the United States government in raising the battleship Maine off the Cuban coast. The picture was readily recognized by many of Mr. Banck's friends in this city and Mr. and Mrs. Banck, of No. 412 Princess street, who felt that they had received a message from their son who is with General Bixby and the others who are doing "big things" in the government service down among the islands.

MR. PICKARD FILES ANSWER.

Denies He Obstructed Officer in Discharge of His Duty.

Entering a general denial, Mr. E. R. Pickard, manager of the Queen City Cycle Company, filed in Justice Harris' Court yesterday afternoon an affidavit in answer to the rule served on him Wednesday afternoon citing him to show cause why he should not be attached for contempt of court for obstructing an officer in the performance of his duty. It being alleged that when Deputy Sheriff Harvey Cox went to his place with claim and delivery papers for a bicycle, Mr. Pickard declined to give the officer any assistance in finding the particular wheel, but told him to find it himself. Mr. Pickard admits in his affidavit that he told Officer Cox to find the bicycle, if he could, but claims that he meant by this that the officer was at liberty to search the building. The affiant further sets out that the bicycle in question was not in the building at the time, having been taken out a short time before by an employee, August Krahne, who rode it home, it being customary for him to take a bicycle out and ride it when going to his meals or on business for the concern, though the fact that the wheel was not in the building at the time of the visit of the officer was not known to the affiant. It is averred. An affidavit from Krahne was also filed yesterday, and bears out the affidavit of Mr. Pickard as to having the bicycle out and of his own violation. L. Clayton Grant, Esq., represents the defendant. This is the first action of the kind before a magistrate in this city and the decision is awaited with much interest. Justice Harris will announce his decision as soon as he has time to consider thoroughly and carefully the affidavit.

MERCHANTS SIGNING UP.

Favor the Plan to Increase the Business of Wilmington.

Wilmington merchants are now signing the membership agreement by which the new Trade Extension Association is to be organized and established. Eight of the largest houses in the city signed up as a result of the first day's solicitation of members. There are nearly 60 names in the list, and it is said that practically all will be in line at the wind-up pulling for Wilmington.

The plan is so live a proposition, and, as its organization and maintenance will involve an outlay of a little money, some have expressed the fear that it would be extremely difficult to secure the co-operation of certain merchants whose membership is much desired to guarantee the greatest success of the movement. The expert to supervise the organization of the plan said last night, when questioned as to this phase of the matter: "That is all pure rot. I know the towns of this country like a book from coast to coast, and Wilmington is just as good a town as there is on the map, and infinitely better than many. Oklahoma City, Cedar Rapids, and a few others may have a little more dash, and what they call 'initiative,' but in the matters of business acumen and substantial worth they, nor any others, have anything on this town at all. The very fact that Wilmington took up this free fare idea will be convincing evidence to the whole country that she is entitled to rank with the live ones in every sense. By the way, if you will just keep your eyes open you will see Wilmington put this movement over before these fellows get through explaining why she can't."

SIXTH STREET BRIDGE.

Mr. A. D. O'Brien Given Contract to Complete the Structure.

Mr. A. D. O'Brien, the well known civil engineer, has been awarded the contract to complete the construction of the bridge over the Atlantic Coast Line tracks at Sixth street and will begin the work within ten days. Mr. O'Brien was the only bidder, and his proposal was $14,000, this being the work only. The materials for the bridge are already on the ground, having been assembled and shipped here by the Southern Construction Company, of Burlington, which concern originally had the contract for the structure but failed to complete it. It will be recalled that the materials were seized by the Sheriff under executive order of the Des Moines Iron & Bridge Co., to satisfy a judgment for something like $3,300 alleged to be due by the Southern Construction Co. for iron and steel purchased for the bridge, and later the city regained possession of the property by giving bond. It is understood that the city will go ahead and use the materials in the construction of the bridge and settle any differences it has with the Des Moines people in court later. Mr. O'Brien has had considerable experience in bridge construction work and the fact that he will have charge of the construction of the Sixth street bridge assures a splendid structure.

CONCERTS AT OCEANIC.

Fort Caswell Band Will Be Heard With Much Interest—Hours.

As previously announced the Post Artillery Band of Fort Caswell and a number of the officers from the U. S. Army post at Fort Caswell, will be special guests of the Oceanic Hotel Company at the hotel for the week-end, arriving today and remaining over until Monday morning. The band numbers about 40 pieces and is one of the best musical organizations in the State. The hour for the concert will be from 6 to 7 o'clock this afternoon and tomorrow from 11 to 12 A. M., and tomorrow afternoon from 6 to 7 o'clock. The public is invited to hear these concerts and to visit the hotel at any time during their stay at the Oceanic. It will be a pleasure for the people of Wilmington and the hundreds of Sunday visitors at the beach to hear this fine musical organization.

CONTRACTS ARE AWARDED

Successful Bidders for Furnishing the Supplies for City—Dr. Thames Assistant in Health Department—Other Notes.

Although in session less than an hour, the City Council yesterday afternoon awarded contracts for furnishing city supplies for the present fiscal year, bids for which were opened Thursday at noon, elected Dr. John Thames assistant city superintendent of health, received the report of the auditors employed to audit the city books, discussed informally with Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, superintendent of health, some matters pertaining to the health and sanitary conditions of the city and considered a few other matters of minor interest.

Mayor Smith presided and in attendance were all members of the Council, also Capt. Thos. D. Meares, the clerk; City Attorney Herbert McClammy and Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt. Councilman P. Q. Moore recommended that bids for furnishing city supplies be accepted as follows:

W. B. Thorpe—Lime, 95 cents, or $1 delivered; Portland cement, $1.85, or $1.90 delivered; brick, common, $8, or $8.50 delivered.

J. A. Springer & Co.—Highest grade anthracite coal, $7 a ton; Tennessee coal (for fire engines), $5.50 a ton; Pocahontas steam coal, car lots, $3.25 a ton; Pocahontas steam coal by carts, $4.50 a ton; cut wood, a cord, $5.50.

Wilmington Star Co.—Advertising, first insertion 24 cents per inch for first insertion and 22 cents an inch for each subsequent insertion.

Thos. Quinlivan—Horse shoeing, $1.25 each a month, best material and workmanship.

Feed—Recommend we buy on open market.

Crushed Stone—Recommend we divide business with the Carolina Cut Stone Co., at $1.75 a ton; Meier Marble Works at $1.75 a ton; Harris Quarries Co., $1.70 to $1.85; N. C. Granite Co., $1.75 a ton.

Curbing—I recommend we buy on open market not to exceed 20 cents per lineal foot.

Southern Clay Mfg. Co.—Vitrified brick, best products to comply with all requirements; $28.50 per thousand or $1.19 and one cent per square yard.

Councilman Moore stated that with the letting of the contracts for the street materials that work in his department would go forward rapidly. He will begin right away the improvements of the streets.

A report was received from Messrs. W. C. Curtis and M. P. Allen, who were recently employed by Mr. M. G. Tienken, in charge of the Department of Accounts and Finance, which showed that the books and accounts of the city are in fine shape. The figures in the statement are practically the same as recently published as a report of the City Clerk and Treasurer to the Council.

Bids were called for lighting the city with gas and electricity at the same time bids were asked for other supplies enumerated above, but no award was made yesterday. However, it is understood that the lighting of the city has been arranged for with the Tidewater Power Co. at a lower rate than was paid last year.

Councilman Tienken reported that he had received complaint that water street dock is and has been for some time closed against public traffic by an individual who monopolizes the property. The matter was referred to Councilman P. Q. Moore, who will make an investigation.

City Attorney McClammy read a letter which he had received from the A. C. L. in reply to a letter written to them with reference to placing gates at what is known as the Castle Haynes crossing in this city. The letter went on to state that a watchman is employed day and night and the company thinks this better for the traveler than the use of gates. It was remarked at the meeting that what the Council is most concerned about now is the placing of gates or a watchman at Eighth and Brunswick streets.

Dr. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, recommended to the Council that Dr. John Thames be elected assistant city superintendent of health at a salary of $900 a year. The major portion of the time of the assistant will be taken up attending the indigent poor, said Dr. Nesbitt, that the department will attend every legitimate call from the indigent poor. There are some classes which will not receive attention, however. There is the man who gets on a big drunk on Saturday night which lasts him over Sunday and who expects that on Monday the city physician should straighten him out so he can return to whatever he is engaged in. Then there are others who attempt to use the health department to run down their cooks. These classes will receive no consideration at the hands of the department.

Upon motion of Councilman P. Q. Moore, seconded by Councilman W. E. Perdue, Dr. Thames was unanimously elected assistant city superintendent of health. Dr. Thames removed to Wilmington last Summer from Greensboro, where he practiced very successfully for a number of years.

Mayor Smith called the attention of the Council to the fact that there is considerable disorder every Sunday at Greenfield Mill Pond, just south of the city. It was suggested that a police officer be placed on duty there every Sunday and this will probably be done.

A communication was received from Mr. King, superintendent of the Wilmington division of the A. C. L., expressing regret that the railroad's approaches to the city are not in as good condition as they should be, the people living a short ways from the tracks throwing refuse on the right-of-way. Mr. King asked the Council to urge the citizens to place the refuse in proper receptacles and thus permit the railroad to aid in the movement for a more beautiful city. The board adjourned shortly before 5 o'clock.

RACING MATINEE YESTERDAY

New Track of Wilmington Driving Association Tried Out—Some Remarkable Showings Are Made.

The new track of the Wilmington Driving Association at "Highwood Park" was tried out for the first time yesterday afternoon when the local horsemen gave a matinee for the purpose of testing the track and giving their horses some practice.

Three races were run and taking into consideration the newness of the track and the condition of the horses, the members of the driving association are very much gratified over the excellent showing that was made. The track proved even faster than its builders had expected and if the marks set are a fair sample of what is possible on the new course their hope of seeing the State record broken here soon does not seem in the least extravagant.

While in rather poor racing form, work of local horses was a distinct surprise, especially that of Wilton Boy, Miss Jarvis and King Highwood. The latter horse showed a wonderful stride and but for several unfortunate breaks, due to lack of training, in both the Class B and Class C races, would almost certainly have won. Practically all of the horses on the track made excellent showings, though, and it is expected that a few weeks training will bring out some of the fastest trotters in this section. The results of yesterday's matinee follow:

Class "A" Time.

Miss Jarvis, McEachern, 2:25.22.

Queen, Caldwell, 2nd.

Alice, D., Cooper, 3rd.

Class "B" Time.

Wilton Boy, Daniels, 2:46.27.

King Highwood, Caldwell, 2nd.

Norval Girl, Harris, 3rd.

Class "C" Time.

Hal, Darby, 3:03.34.

Anna, Caldwell, 2nd.

Hulda, Kennedy, 3rd.

Mr. H. G. Bardin, of Lake Waccamaw, officiated as starter and timekeeper.

Quite a number of Wilmington race "fans" went out yesterday for the purpose of seeing the local trotters on the new track for the first time and several experienced horsemen admitted that they were more than surprised by the time made.

The track, which is of sand clay, dries out in short time, a feature that will prevent it from getting soggy and slow in rainy weather. It is a regulation half-mile, as-odation track, and the Driving Association claims that it is the equal, if not the superior, of any track in the State.

On July 7th and 8th the first official meet will be held and all the fast horses in the Pee Dee sections of the Carolinas will be here, in addition to others from the western part of the State. The meet will also bring to Wilmington some of the best known horsemen of the two States, and the local turfmen will have the opportunity of seeing some of the best racing of two States afford.

Between now and that time Wilmington horsemen will be busy getting their horses in shape and some of them express themselves as confident of taking a share of the money at the forthcoming event.

RUN DOWN BY AUTO.

Mr. Raymond Whitlock Bruised About the Legs by Machine.

What might very easily have been a serious accident occurred on Walnut street, between Fourth and Fifth, yesterday about noon, when Mr. Raymond Whitlock, a son of Rev. C. F. Whitlock, was struck and run over by an automobile owned by Starkey Bros. and driven by Chauffeur Hewlett.

Mr. Whitlock was riding his bicycle and was near the curb, but he started toward the center of the street and when he did he was struck by the automobile, which was running at a very low rate of speed. One of the front wheels of the car passed over the leg of the man, and the leg was brought to a standstill before the rear wheels reached the point where he lay, this indicating that the car was just creeping along when the accident occurred. Mr. Whitlock's legs were badly bruised, but he was able to get to his feet and walk to his home. His bicycle was demolished. Had Mr. Whitlock not started toward the center of the street he would not have been hit by the car, but he did not know the machine was behind him, as he had no warning of its approach. There were two passengers in the automobile. As soon as the accident occurred the occupants of the car, including the chauffeur, jumped out to render what assistance they could, and Mr. Whitlock was given a card on which was the name of the chauffeur and the owner of the car.

Delivery Horse Runs Away.

A horse hitched to a delivery wagon of the Wilmington Grocery Company became frightened in Purcell Alley yesterday just as the driver was preparing to start on a delivery trip. The frightened animal ran for a block or so up Second street, scattering groceries and colliding with several other teams, but doing very little damage to anything except the wagon to which it was hitched. On this one front wheel was smashed. After proceeding several blocks up Second street, the horse turned and ran back into the alley where it had started, breaking away from the wagon near the corner.

Wins Fight for Life.

It was long and bloody battle for life that was waged by James B. Mer-shon, of Newark, N. J., of which he writes: "I had lost much blood from long hemorrhages, and was very weak and run-down. For eight months I was unable to work. Death seemed close on my heels, when I began three weeks ago to use Dr. King's New Discovery. But it has helped me greatly. It is doing all that you claim." For weak, sore lungs, obstinate coughs, stubborn colds, hoarseness, la grippe, asthma, hay-fever or any throat or lung trouble it is supreme. 50c. and $1.00. Trial bottle free. Guaranteed by R. R. Bellamy.

LIFE SAVER ARRESTED.

One of Lumina Trio Will Be Taken to Carteret for Trial.

Edward T. Russell, one of the three life savers who have been doing duty at Lumina this season, was arrested late yesterday afternoon by Deputy Sheriff W. E. Watson on a capias from Carteret county, where he is wanted to answer a charge of larceny. An officer from Carteret arrived here yesterday with the necessary papers for Russell and was at the beach when the arrest was made. He brought the prisoner to the city last night, but will probably not leave for home until tomorrow or Monday. Russell denies the charge against him and says that he has no doubt but that he will be able to prove his innocence in court. He regretted exceedingly to give up his position which he had only a short time ago secured and in which he was giving most satisfactory service. The life saving boat at Lumina is manned by a crew of three and the manner in which they handled the boat has been remarked upon by nearly all the visitors to the resort this season. Russell has made many friends during his brief stay who will hope that he will exonerate himself at the hearing in Superior Court next week. There is another man in this section who is also wanted in Carteret and it is expected that he will be arrested this morning.

Fine Catch of Trout.

Mr. Joe Price, of the firm of Hewlett & Price, accompanied by a colored boatman, made a remarkable catch yesterday morning out a short way from the Oceanic Hotel. He spent about two hours fishing just before breakfast and 48 trout, averaging over two and one-half pounds each, were landed. The whole catch weighed 120 pounds and the largest fish tipped the scales at six pounds.

THE ORPHANS ARRIVE.

Pass Through City On Way to Southport—Concert Here Monday.

The singing class of the Oxford Orphanage Asylum, which will give a concert in the Academy of Music here Monday night, arrived in the city yesterday from Burgaw, where an entertainment was given Thursday night. The class left in the afternoon for Southport, where the children will render a concert this evening. While in Southport they will be the guests of the Pythian Temple.

The children who entered the contest for a prize which will be given the one who sells the most tickets to the concert Monday evening, have been very successful in disposing of a large number of tickets and the indications are that the Orphans will be greeted by a large audience. They have been well trained and the programme to be rendered here is said to be unusually attractive. The class this year is composed of ten girls and four boys. Miss Sattie Marler is their teacher and Mr. L. W. Alderman is manager. Those composing the class are: Bessie Allen, Rosa Forbes, Mary Hancock, Ruth Bland, Yvette King, Lillian White, Blandine Bigger, Beatrice Wilson, Bessie Stevenson, Lizzie Hutchens, Mito Steador, Leonard Medlin, Edgar Rollison, Roscoe Franklin.

MORE STREET IMPROVEMENTS.

Third and Market Streets May Soon Be Given Attention.

Following closely the announcement that Front street is to be improved from Union Station to the north side of Castle street is the statement that the improvement of Third from Red Cross to Castle and Market from Fourth to 17th streets is to be undertaken in a short time also. It is stated that circulars, similar to those sent to Front street property owners last week, are being prepared and will be mailed in a few days to Third and Market streets property owners, setting forth the requirements of the city as to sidewalks, etc. Both Market and Third streets are much traveled and the citizens will be pleased to know that the improvement of these thoroughfares is to be begun in a short time. Councilman P. Q. Moore, in charge of the Department of Streets, is busy now getting everything in shape for the improvement of the streets, and he will probably leave next week or some Northern cities to investigate the kind of paving, etc., used in those places.

THE RECORDER'S COURT.

Several Cases of Minor Interest Disposed of Yesterday.

In the Recorder's Court yesterday morning judgment was announced in the case against Wm. Kennedy, a white man, charged with assault with deadly weapon on L. W. Page, a street car conductor, the testimony in which was taken Thursday. The defendant was required to pay a fine of $10 and costs. Holly Robinson, colored, was required to pay a fine of $5 and costs for disorderly conduct, and a fine was entered against Haven Tarham, a sailor, charged with a similar offense. Ethel Shavers, colored, was given hearing on the charge of conducting a disorderly house. The evidence was not sufficient to substantiate the charge and the action was dismissed.

ENJOYED FISHING TRIP.

Outing of Virginia Life Insurance Men at Wrightsville Beach.

An early morning fishing trip at Wrightsville Beach tendered to the local "force" of the Virginia Life Insurance Company by the superintendent, Mr. R. T. Hopkins, yesterday, was one of the first and most delightful events of the kind this season. The party, consisting of about 17, went out yesterday morning at 6:30 o'clock in the sailing yacht Vesper May, in charge of Capt. Wells. The fishing was unusually good and greatly added to the interest and delight of the outing. The catch of black fish was large and the party brought a good string back. After several hours "outside" they landed at 1:30 o'clock and came back to the city. It was a most successful outing and the genial superintendent means to give one annually to the employees of the company here.

Besides Mr. Hopkins, those in the party yesterday were as follows: Messrs. D. D. Benton, W. M. Robbins, J. N. Henderson, assistant superintendents; J. C. Pickard, J. J. W. C. Hurst, W. H. M. Koch, W. ## PARTY FROM ATLANTA.

About Eighty Georgians Arrived Yesterday for the Week-End.

The first party of the season of week-end guests from Atlanta, Ga., arrived over the Seaboard Air Line yesterday at noon and went through to Wrightsville Beach, where they will spend several days. The popularity of the low week-end rates was testified to most eloquently in the number of pleasure seekers who purchased their tickets the first day they were on sale, Thursday. There were about 80 in the party and about 40 are registered at each of the hotels. Wrightsville Beach has always held a favored place in the esteem of the Atlanta people and the number that took advantage of the week-end rates this season the first week the tickets were on sale is evidence that the beach is ever growing in popularity with the people of the Georgia capital.

Sailor Jumped Overboard.

Determined to make good his vow that he would not again cross the Atlantic on the British steamer Frieda Hill, on which he sailed to this country, a sailor by the name of Young jumped from the steamer as it passed buoy No. 15, about three miles from the city, yesterday morning and as the channel is near the Brunswick side at this point, he swam ashore with little difficulty. Young deserted the vessel while it was in port and was captured Thursday night at Fourth and Harnett streets by Deputy Sheriff Kelly. He spent the night in jail and was put aboard the vessel yesterday morning, remarking to the officer at the time that he would not return on the steamer.

New Making Second Tour.

Special health officers employed by Dr. Chas. T. Nesbitt, city superintendent of health, have made a complete circuit of the city with the disinfecting preparation for the extermination of flies and have already started on a second trip through the central portion of the city. The officers will probably finish the second campaign within a few days. Very likely some of the places which are unsanitary or need attention have been overlooked by the inspectors and, if so, persons who find such places will confer a favor on health department by making a report of the same.

Crew Caught Three Sharks.

While the tug Sea King was returning to port from sea yesterday, where she had towed a schooner, the members of the crew caught three sharks in addition to a large number of other fish, as a result of a chance shot at "deep sea fishing." The sharks are variety, and one of them was some two and a half feet long. They were caught with a hook and when displayed on the streets yesterday created much interest.

Theatrical.

Grand Theatre.

—Today is the big day again and Grand patrons will have a bill that is worth going miles to see. The big feature for today will be the big comedy song by Mr. Tally, "Moving Day in Jungletown." This song besides having a tuneful melody, has the most comical slides ever produced showing Teddy in Africa. The big feature picture will be the great Biograph production of "Enoch Arden." There is small need to describe this subject, as the poem of Lord Tennyson is so well known, so suffice it to say that this Biograph subject is an unusually faithful portrayal of that beautiful romance of Enoch Arden, Annie Lee and Philip Ray taken in scenes of rare beauty. Besides the above picture there is also a great comedy picture which will appeal strongly to Grandees. The Grand is positively the coolest place this side of the beach. Come in today and cool off and see a great show. Doors open at 2 P. M.

At the Bijou.

Today is to be the day of all days so far at the popular Bijou. A breezy show for warm weather has been prepared and it will be served up in the Bijou's usual fine style. The week-end bill today will indeed be a great one, catering to all tastes and embracing only that which is best in all lines. Comedy plays a strong part in today's bill. One of the chief match makers in film of unusual interest. It is called "Heroes Three," and deals with the live subject of a volunteer department. It treats the theme in most humorous vein and folks of Wilmington who remember the days of the old grammar department should miss seeing this film. "Mistake Will Happen," is a true-to-life film that is rich in comical mix-ups. The dramatic star of the bill is "Montana Anna," and it is different from any Western film ever seen in Wilmington. It is stirring in action and heart-grIPPING in plot.

The Airdome.

The funniest picture of the season will be shown at the Airdome this evening—"Bill as Lover." A picture with a clever plot entitled "Truth Revealed," will be especially interesting. There are two other plays making up the quartette for the day. The quartette has selected "Steamboat Bill," and this is sure to be the biggest thing yet in the vocal line. Mr. Ed Reilly has a good lively illustrated song to complete the programme, which on the whole is exceptional. In his last performance, he sold last night, won endless applause, and Manager Pfeiffer promises many such features for the coming week. No matter how large the crowds the Airdome is always cool. New orchestra music daily, with the entire changes of program, making the Airdome the most popular spot in town.

SOUTHERN RAILWAY.

New York Exchange Members Takes Rosette Jew of South.

(Special Star Correspondence.) New York, June 16.—J. Frank Howell in his market review says: "The next low priced stock (Erie) having enjoyed a splendid rise, to be taken up is likely to be Southern Railway. The natural growth of the territory tributary to the Southern system insures the development of the property to limits not conceivable to those unfamiliar with that great section. The South is growing faster than any other part of the United States, and Southern Railway taps every Southern State."

TIME FOR A HOME RUN.

Native of Belgium Seeks Race Suicide—Score is 24 to 0.

Pittsburg, June 16.—August Clondeaux, aged 42, an expert glass worker, of Ford City, near here, left for New York today, en route to Belgium, his native land, accompanied by his wife and 24 children. Incidentally he also takes with him a comfortable fortune made in the glass industry in the Allegheny valley. Clondeaux and his wife came to this country 21 years ago a short time after their marriage. The family was happy today. Clondeaux was especially joyous. He is a great admirer of baseball and described his family and departure as follows:

"The score is 24 to 0." (He meant none of the children had died.) "It was a great game, too—13 singles, four two-baggers and a triple. Now we make a home run."

SCORES WOMAN'S SUFFRAGE.

Cardinal Gibbons Says Place for Woman is in Home.

Baltimore, June 16.—Cardinal Gibbons, in an address yesterday at the commencement exercises of St. Joseph's College and Academy, Emmittsburg, scored Woman's Suffrage. He said:

"I think the place for woman is in the home. Women should not want to vote, but if they took such interest in the affairs of their husbands and brothers they could easily have them cast their ballots in the right manner. In doing this woman will be the champion of what is right."

COULD NOT WASH DISHES

In Such Misery Her Husband Begged Her to Take Cardui—So Says Mrs. Bishop, of Waverly, Virginia.

Waverly, Va.—"I suffered miserably every month," says Mrs. Mattie L. Bishop, of this place, "and everything I ate would put me in such misery I would have to go to bed until it wore off. I could not even wash my dishes, after a meal."

At last, my husband begged me to take Cardui. I had tried so many different kinds of medicine, I didn't want to take it, but agreed to try it for his sake.

Before I had finished one bottle, I could eat all I wanted, and could do all of my work all right. Now I feel all right, and suffer each month but very little pain."

If you are ailing, suffering from any of the troubles so common to women, or if you are merely weak and lack life and energy, remember that there is, on the shelf of your favorite drugist, a bottle of Cardui, waiting for you, ready for instant use, ready to give you relief, to build up your strength, to make you feel young and fresh, and hopeful.

The bottle is there. Will you get it?

SHIP OWNERS GIVE INCREASE.

Seamen Encouraged by Concessions
 London, June 16.—The leaders of the strike of the seamen profess to be greatly encouraged by reports they have received from various other points where men have obeyed the call to go out and by the fact that numbers of the ship owners have conceded the strikers a ten shilling per month advance in wages. The strike, however, is still a half hearted affair. In a majority of cases crews that strike are easily replaced and there is not the slightest indication of the strike becoming general. There is some anxiety, however, regarding a number of liners which are due to leave Southampton and Liverpool tomorrow.

While the movement is spreading slightly in some directions, some of the large ports are totally unaffected by the strike.

New York, June 16.—The strike action was taken at a mass meeting of members of the International Seamen's Union of America and followed a report of a committee appointed a month ago to present the seamen's demands to the coastwise shipowners.

According to H. P. Griffin, vice president of the union, redress was promised the men by all the companies except the Morgan line. Failing to obtain satisfactory assurances from its representative he said the action of tonight was decided upon.

A committee was named to review the status of negotiations with other coastwise lines and to determine whether further strike ultimatums are necessary. It will make known its decision Sunday. Represented on the committee are the international cooks and stewards' union, international sailors' union, teamsters' international union and firemen's international union.

Unless immediate action is taken, according to Griffin a general strike may be declared to tie up the entire Atlantic coastwise service affecting over $20,000.

The men's demands include higher pay, better food, and other improved accommodations both aboard ship and on land.

The Southern Pacific passenger steamers Momus and Antilles are now in port, the former being scheduled to sail tomorrow and the latter on Wednesday next.

CHARGES AGAINST REICHMANN.

Former President of Carnegie Trust Co.—Take Statement.

New York, June 16.—A long list of charges against Joseph B. Reichmann, former president of the Carnegie Trust Company, was set for the opening session today of Reichmann's trial on a charge of making a false statement to the State Banking Department. Jugglery of State institution's fund, falsifying of a report, and "killing checks" were among the illegalities which the district office declared it was ready to prove.

The specific charge on which Reichmann faced the jury covers an alleged transaction involving $50,000 which Assistant District Attorney Clark declared should have been included among contingent liabilities. This was not done, he said, on the contrary, he claimed Reichmann certified to the banking department in a statement filed early last September that there were no contingent liabilities.

The jury was completed this afternoon. Adjournment was taken until tomorrow.

BOY BANDIT IS SURROUNDED.

Young Californian Accused of Holding Up Number of Town Saloons.

Vallejo, Cal., June 16.—After a series of running battles with officers of three counties yesterday, Frank Melville, believed to be the boy bandit who has held up a dozen saloons in California towns recently, is surrounded in a swamp on Garretts Streets. It is thought Melville's ammunition is almost exhausted, and it is believed his capture is certain.

Melville was traced to Vallejo last night through a pet dog he was carrying. Officers following him from town exchanged a volley of shots with the lad, but he eluded them. Early yesterday he was seen near Glen Cove and replied to a command to surrender by a fusillade from his pistol, afterward driving into a field of grain. He finally was forced to take refuge in the tule swamp.

Neville repeatedly shouted to his pursuers that he would not be taken alive.

TOO MANY ESCAPES.

Georgia Commission Says Wardens Will be Held to Account.

Atlanta, Ga., June 16.—Statistics just completed show that 219 convicts not including prisoners held for misdemeanors, escaped in this State during the 12 months ending on May 30th, and that 120 of these are still at liberty.

Amazed at these figures, Chairman Davison, of the State prison commission, has written a sharp letter to the wardens in all the camps of this State warning them that in future they will be held personally responsible for the safe keeping of the convicts.

In the letter the chairman attributed the escapes in most cases to negligence and carelessness on the part of the guards and warns the wardens against indiscriminately granting "trusty" privileges.

INFORMS THE PUBLISHERS.

International Paper Company Refuses to Give Information.

Washington, June 16.—John Norris, chairman of the Paper Committee of the American Newspaper Publishers' Association, has issued a circular to publishers charging that the refusal of the International Paper Company to furnish information called for by the Senate Committee on Finance was due to the fact that the data, if furnished, would have shown that the International Paper Company had bought mills and stopped their production of news print paper to repress competition. He alleged that the patrons of husbandry misled the committee about its membership and that its membership instead of being 1,000,000, as represented, is only 425,033, including women and children and others not farmers.

It is contended by Mr. Norris that the head of the firm of Allen & Graham, of New York city, had been using "the mask" of the National Grange for six years, to promote and prevent legislation in the name of the Grange, though collecting large sums of money from many classes of manufacturers. Norris said in his circular that the head of that firm had "marshalled the professional grangers and arranged the order of their appearance before the Senate Committee as if they were a set of manikins, and that he was also on hand when the so-called farmers marched to the White House to warn President Taft of the vengeance of their wrath because of his course on reciprocity."

CAMORRIST TRIAL REMOVED.

Number of Features During Day Want to Retract.

Viterbo, Italy, June 16.—Alessandro Leloy, of counsel for the defense in the Camorrist trial, resumed his duties today and trial proceeded. Leloy in anger withdrew from proceedings Wednesday after he had been accused of tampering with crown witnesses. The charges against him were successfully combated.

The barbers, Cuoci and Ciolella, who previously testified that he had seen a ring found in the possession of the alleged murderers on the finger of Gennaro Cuoci, the murdered man, wrote President Bianchi yesterday that they wished to retract their former testimony. Both men, therefore, were placed on the stand today and testified that they had never seen the ring. They said the basis for their former testimony was obtained by reading the newspaper accounts of the murder of Cuoci. President Bianchi accepted their retractions and ordered the release of the two men who had been held under charges of false swearing.

MADISON SQUARE GARDEN.

Sold for $3,500,000 to Make Room for Office Building.

New York, June 16.—Madison Square Garden, which was opened just 21 years ago this month and since become known as New York's biggest indoor arena, is to give way to a commercial building 25 stories high. The sale of the property to a syndicate, long rumored, has been definitely announced. The price paid is said to be $3,500,000.

The garden has been the home of national horse shows, automobile, dog, the poultry and other shows, masquerade balls, mass meetings, boxing circuses, six day running and bicycle races and almost every other variety of big amusement which has entertained New York. The new building planned will be a quadrangle with a great court in the center.

BOMB EXPLODES IN CONDUIT.

Damage to Windows in Chicago by a Blast Which is Mysterious.

Chicago, June 16.—For the third time within a month an explosion occurred today in a cable conduit of the Commonwealth Edison Company, under the subway of Adams Street.

The blast shattered windows in buildings within a radius of a block and threw several families from their beds.

The police believe the explosion was caused by a bomb set off by labor agitators. Officials of the Edison Company, however, say they have had no recent trouble with their employees and are unable to solve the cause of the mysterious explosions.

TO FACE CHARGES OF ARSON.

Prisoner Going to Cincinnati in Order of California Governor.

Sacramento, Cal., June 16.—Gov. Johnston has ordered the extradition of John P. Francis, who is wanted in Cincinnati for arson. Francis is under arrest at Ukiah, Cal. He will be taken East immediately.

The crime with which he is charged is that of burning his place of business with the intent to defraud insurance companies.

DESTRUCTIVE FOREST FIRES.

Timber Damage of $5,000,000 in Hok Kaido Province, Japan.

Victoria, B. C., June 16.—The destructive forest fire in Hok Kaido province, Japan, briefly reported by cable on Monday 20th, raged thirteen days and burned an immense area, causing timber loss estimated at $5,000,000, according to advices received by the Tacoma Maru.

Corunna, Spain, June 16.—The steamer Ypiranga, with former President Diaz, of Mexico, on board, arrived here this evening. The governor and the Mexican consul greeted Gen. Diaz. The Mexican ex-President did not land and the vessel proceeded on her voyage.

Plenty of Comedy.
 The Grand is presenting some great comedy today.

GEN. DIAZ IN SPAIN.

Former President of Mexico Leaves the Ship Today.

Vigo, Spain, June 16.—Gen. Porfirio Diaz, former President of Mexico, arrived in the harbor today on the steamer Ypiranga, on which he sailed from Vera Cruz, Mexico, on May 31st.

According to such of his plans as were made public prior to his departure for Havre, France, later returning to Spain for an indefinite stay.

Last night's reports stated that members of the progressive party and workmen were organizing an unfriendly demonstration against Diaz in the event he landed. The Mexican minister to Portugal is at Vigo to receive his former chief.

The Ypiranga, after a stop of two hours, proceeded for Corunna. Gen. Diaz did not land. During the stay of the vessel in the harbor no unpleasant incident occurred, though it was reported last night that members of the progressive party and workmen had arranged to express their unfavorable opinion toward the former President if he came ashore. As a precautionary measure, the maritime authorities placed a naval guard around the Ypiranga as soon as she arrived. The guard included two launches filled with marines and the gunboat Hernan Cortes. Only passengers were permitted to board the steamer.

Balduino Davalos, the Mexican charge d'affaires at Lisbon, and Senor Dauden, Mexican consul here, went out to the vessel and greeted the general. Diaz told them that his health was not satisfactory, and that he had suffered greatly during the voyage from an abscess on the jawbone, which had become troublesome before his departure from Mexico.

ACCUSED JUDGES OF BIAS.

Cox's Prosecutor Has Not Quit Effort to Convict Cincinnati Boss.

Cincinnati, June 16.—In line with the decision of the second circuit court judges in Ohio in which he was conceded the right to elect upon which of the two perjury indictments against George B. Cox he would proceed to trial, County Prosecuting Attorney Henry T. Hunt made his first move today in the new legal warfare necessary to follow.

He filed with the clerk of the court two affidavits of bias and prejudice, directed, respectively, at Presiding Judge Charles J. Hunt, now sitting on the criminal bench of the common pleas court, and Judge William B. Dickson, trial judge in the Cox case.

Charges of bias favorable to Cox and prejudice against the prosecutor personally, are made in both affidavits. Judge Hunt was the target of one affidavit because, if only Judge Dickson were to be named, Presiding Judge Hunt's function of naming an alternate judge would not be impaired.

BEGS REPORTERS TO QUIT.

Rockefeller Wants to Return to Cleveland Without Publicity.

Cleveland, June 16.—Bemoaning the fate that made it impossible for him to visit Cleveland without attracting newspaper men to the railway station, John D. Rockefeller arrived here today for his annual summer stay at Forest Hill, his estate in East Cleveland. He was accompanied by Mrs. Rockefeller and the latter's sister, Miss Lucy Spellman.

The oil king did not leave his private car until the train on which he made the trip from Pocomantic Hills, N. Y., was almost ready to pull out. He was immediately surrounded by a flock of reporters.

"Please, please, gentlemen," pleaded the richest man in the world, "only question me, please, please." And he asked: "Why can't I be allowed to come home like an ordinary man?"

G. A. Rudd, Mr. Rockefeller's brother-in-law, and H. M. Odams, an attaché of Forest Hill, met the party at the station and whisked its members away to Forest Hill in an automobile.

Gloucester, Mass., June 16.—The advance guard of the sub-marine flotilla, which left Newport for this city yesterday, was sighted at the entrance to the harbor just after 11 o'clock tonight. At that time two of the sixteen submarines were to be seen, but they were so far off shore that it was not possible to distinguish which boats they were. The other five are presumed to be close behind.

The run from Newport was expected to be made almost entirely beneath the surface. Only once after the boats left Newport were they sighted. That was yesterday noon when two of them were seen off Vineyard Haven.
